Course Description:
Practical knowledge and experience in psychology instruction and advanced content in a specific area of psychology. May be repeated for a different course. Maximum credit four units. No more than 12 units of courses numbered Psychology 491, 494, 495, 497, 499 may be counted toward the major.

Requirements:
Students who wish to register for Psychology 494 must complete this form with the assistance of the faculty member who will supervise their work.

Directions:
1. Submit the completed form with appropriate signatures to the Psychology Department Office, LS-110, to obtain the repressed schedule number and register for the course.

Student Name: ____________________________________________________________

Red ID: ___________________________________________

Email: ___________________________________________

Phone: ___________________________________________

Semester:   ☐ Fall   ☐ Spring   ☐ Summer   Year: _______  This is a 2-unit course and is graded CR/NC

Number and Title of Course to Be Supported: ___________________________________________

Participation in Psy 494 requires that you:
1) Attend the class in which you will be assisting and meet weekly with the class instructor;
2) Conduct tutoring, discussion and/or review sessions with students in the class, according to the agreement with the instructor;
3) Complete readings assigned by the instructor;
4) Complete an APA style paper showing advanced study in the content area of the class and
5) Complete a brief written project relevant to teaching of psychology.

_________________________________________________________  ____________________
(Student Signature)                                               (Date)

This section to be completed by the Faculty Supervisor (use back of page if more space is needed):

1) Outline the expected student responsibilities, including an approximate time commitment for each task. Psy 494 students may participate in activities involving assistance to students such as tutoring, office hours, conducting discussion sessions, and leading study/review sessions. Note that Psy 494 students are not permitted to grade course work.

2) Provide a list of recommended readings relevant to course content and/or Psychology instruction (e.g., ethics, plagiarism, syllabus creation, teaching of psychology, test creation, structured class activities).

3) Outline expectations for final written project(s). Students should complete a 5-page APA-style paper focused on advanced course content and a brief written project focused on teaching issues (e.g., developing an undergraduate psychology course syllabus, discussion guide, or sample lecture outline).

Faculty Supervisor: ________________________________________________________

_________________________________________  ____________________________
(Faculty Signature)                                         (Faculty Signature)